Church Marks 90th Year With Music

Corpus Christi Church, observing its 90th anniversary, has inaugurated a program of sacred music for solo voice and various accompanying instruments, conducted each Sunday at 10.30 A.M. and continuing through January 10. Corpus Christi Church is at Lafayette and Mount Royal avenues.

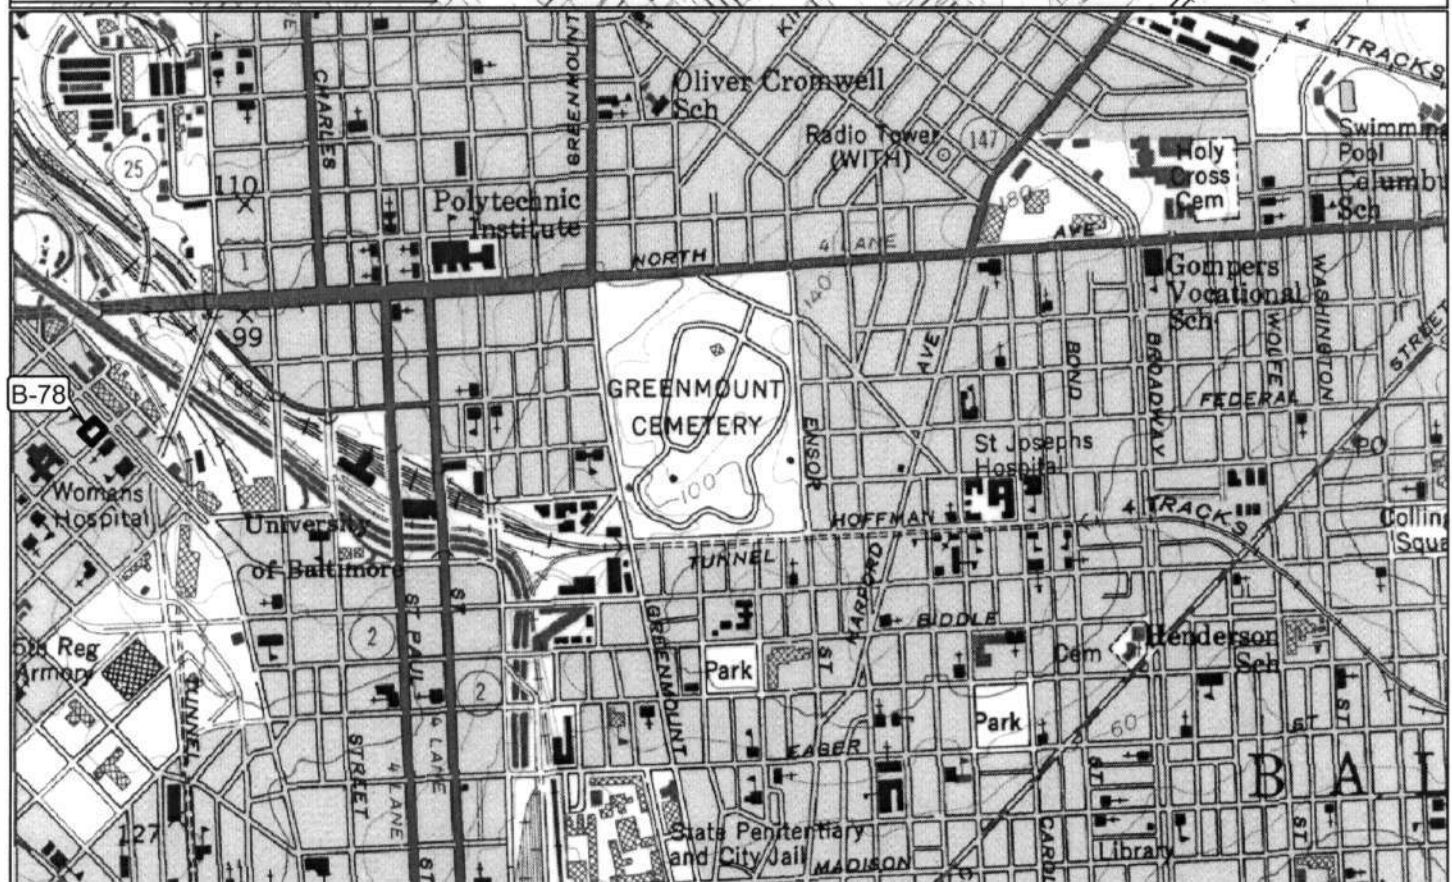

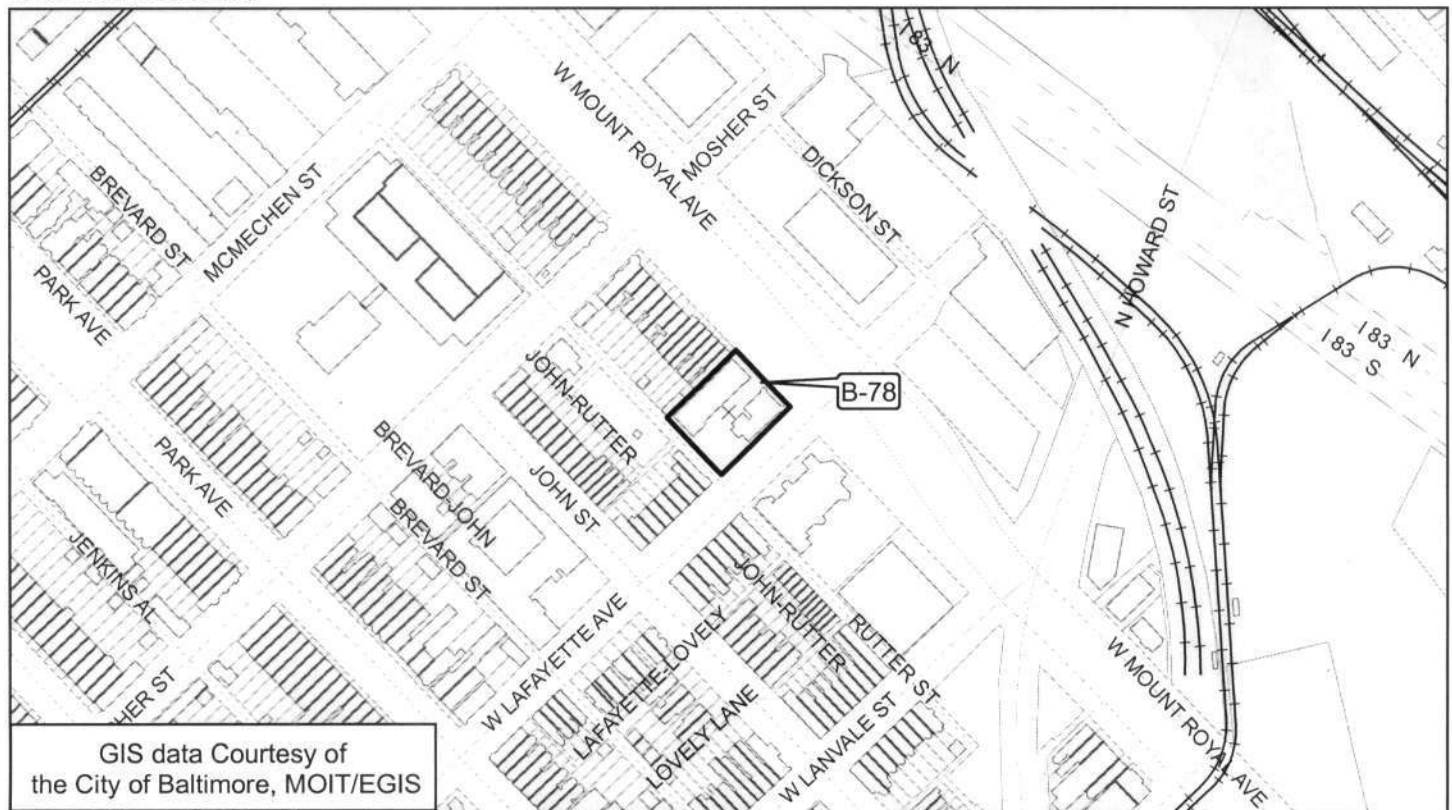

The program encompasses 10 centuries of music written for the church, extending from the earliest Gregorian plain-song through contemporary religious music.

Each Sunday will be devoted to a different composer or style, including oratorio works by Handel, Haydn and Scarlatti, sacred songs by Purcell and Schutz, Bach cantatas, Gregorian chant and organum, traditional hymns, and works by Twentieth century composers such as Britten and Gibbs. Guest soloists and instrumentalists will participate in the program regularly, especially on the holy days of Christmas and Easter.

The program is organized and conducted by the soloist, Marlene Connell and her accompanist, Jefferson J. Connell.
